Miss Myrtle Musolf Becomes Bride of Ronald O. Green

In an afternoon ceremony performed in Our Savior's Church, Compton, Miss Myrtle Marie Musolf exchanged vows to become the bride of Ronald O. Green. Rev. James Dougherty officiated. The bride's matron of honor was her closest friend, Mrs. John R. Donley, and Miss Wilma Louise Musolf attended her sister as bridesmaid. Russell E. Green served as his brother's best man and Bob

Cook of Seattle ushered. The new Mrs. Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Musolf of 1818 W. 219th street, was graduated from Compton Junior College. Her husband, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Green of Los Angeles and Seattle, also was graduated from Compton. Following a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for an extended honeymoon trip to Palm Springs. They will live in Los Angeles.

NORMA LOU REEVES NOW MRS. KENNETH W. SHAW

Wearing an exquisite gown of white net over slipper satin and satin gauntlets, Miss Norma Lou Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Winston Holmes of 723 Columbia Place, and Kenneth W. Shaw of Hollydale, exchanged nuptial vows Saturday evening in First Baptist Church. The bride's full-length veil, edged with Chantilly lace, fell from a bandeau of pearded orange blossoms and she carried a shower arrangement of white orchids. Rev. C. Miles Northrup, pastor, performed the ceremony in the presence of 75 guests.

Donna Dee Reeves attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing olive-green taffeta, complemented by a bouquet of carnations and bouvardia.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Stitt and Wilma Speck, wore fuchsia-hued gowns, fashioned like the honor attendant's, their arm bouquets of carnations harmonizing with their gowns.

Arlene Shaw of Hollydale, sister of the bridegroom, served as guest book registrar.

Robert O'Caín attended the bridegroom as best man and William J. Reeves, brother of the bride, ushered.

Preceding the ceremony, Jeri Stevens sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Mrs. Shaw received her diploma from Torrance High School and her husband, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Shaw of Hollydale, was graduated from Compton Junior College and attended Diesel Engineering School.
